NO CALLS PLEASE**

The Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics is seeking a dedicated, savvy, dynamic team of educators (only teams of two are accepted as applicants) for a seasonal traveling position. Leave No Trace, an international nonprofit organization based in Boulder, CO, is dedicated to the responsible enjoyment and active stewardship of natural lands by all people. The e-tour team travels throughout the U.S. teaching and promoting minimum impact techniques to kids of all experience levels. The e-tour will reach out to millions of individuals, promoting stewardship of the outdoors and responsible recreation practices.

Couples and pre-paired teams only apply.

We will not place individuals in a team.

The e-tour, sponsored by the Coleman Company, represents the Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics as goodwill ambassadors. The team will present special programs and activities specifically for kids in retail stores and summer camps across the country. Team members will be outfitted with apparel, equipment and supplies necessary for teaching and camping, as well as communicating electronically. Compensation package includes food and lodging expenses and a monthly salary.

Employment and travel will begin approximately June 20th and run through October 31st 2010.
